SUPPLEMENT TO 25X1A
REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. TUNG Kuan-hsien is now drafting three alternate plans for a government to be set up by LI Tsung-jen after the fall of Taiwan. The following are the essences of the three plans:
 - a. To call a general conference of all anti-Communist elements to form a government under the present Nationalist Government constitution.
 - b. To retain a quorum of Legislative Yuan members who will elect a new premier and form a cabinet under the present Nationalist Government constitution.
 - c. To call a general conference to form a new revolutionary government having no formal relation with the Nationalist regime.
2. TUNG and his associates have not yet decided to send these suggestions to LI. They have advised LI, however, that if he is seriously intending to form a new government he must undertake preliminary action immediately. If he waits till the fall of Taiwan his bid will be lost in the mad scramble which is sure to ensue.
